

Audio Conferencing with For Conference

Using the conference calling services of For Conference saves time and money. Whether you are audio conferencing on a regular basis or only occasionally, with our easy and flexible services we meet all requirements of our satisfied users.

About For Conference

For Conference is the specialist in conferencing services. Many international companies that are quoted on the stock exchange as well as profit/non-profit organizations use our services for audio, web and video conferencing.

EasytoConnect Audio

When you need to host weekly recurring meetings or organize a last minute meeting, the EasytoConnect Audio service of For Conference allows you to bring people together to help you meet your business objectives and succeed.

EasytoConnect Audio is a reliable solution that does not require reservations or operators. You have the ability to control your conference commands with a touch of a button from your telephone keypad.

I wish to get started, what do I have to do?

Call us and we will give you your details immediately. You can also apply for a conference card online. Are there perhaps several colleagues that would like to set up a conference call sometime? No problem whatsoever, simply apply for extra conference cards, these are free and therefore do not require any type of subscription.

Advantages EasytoConnect Audio

- Very easy to use
- No subscription fee, start up or other hidden costs
- Everyone has his or her own virtual conference room
- Apply once only, reservation no longer required
- Elected service provider of the year in 2005, 2006 and 2007
- 24 hours a day available
- 24*7 Helpdesk
- Free conference card through the mail
- You can record the meeting and listen to it later
- Using local dial up numbers, participants can dial up at local rate
- Using Toll Free, participants can dial up for free
- You can add dossier numbers to your conference
- No use = no costs
- Itemized invoice, per participant per conference
- International local dial up in 14 countries without extra costs

EasytoConnect Dial Out

In some cases, it is convenient for the participants to be called for the conference call. For this, you can utilize the For Conference EasytoConnect Dial Out service. This means that our operators call the participants at the agreed time and make sure that all of them join the call conference.

EasytoConnect Event

A conference call with 250 persons taking part, giving a product presentation to 400 invitees via a webcast?

As far as For Conference is concerned that does not present any problem. Contact us for any of your larger events using audio, web and video. Our EasytoConnect Event service is a custom made solution that will meet all your requirements.

